

Darlington
Safeguarding Partnership

Protecting Children and Adults

Barnardo's

HALO PROJECT
Break the Silence

ann craft trust

acting against abuse

Key Theme: Safeguarding Yourself and Others

Safeguarding Week 2023

November 20th to 24th

Register for updates and free resources!

Visit tinyurl.com/ACTAW23 or scan here

Find out below what is happening in Darlington to raise awareness of Safeguarding Week November 2023 and the key themes...

Monday 20th November at 2pm-3pm

Delivered by Barnardo's, this session will look at how to use the child exploitation matrix and also the NRM process.

Thursday 23rd November at 9:30am—12:30pm

Delivered by Barnardo's, this is a full session on child exploitation covering all aspects of both sexual and criminal exploitation.

Wednesday 22nd November at 1:30pm-2:30pm

Delivered by Professor Nick Neave, this session will look at hoarding, raising awareness of this issue and discussing the work of the North East Hoarding Partnership and his research group.

Wednesday 22nd November 10-11:30am

Delivered by the Amy Waterfield, this session is on Self-Neglect: The Individual's Perspective. A session which explores research findings from a study carried out as part of an Expert in Practice programme with Darlington Borough Council and Newcastle University.

DARLINGTON
Borough Council

Friday 24th November 10-11:30am

Delivered by the Rachel Watt, this session will discuss adult safeguarding under the Care Act 2014 discussing the roles and responsibilities of the Local Authority.

Wednesday 22nd November at 10am—12pm

Delivered by the HALO Project, this session looks at honour-based violence, forced marriage, domestic and sexual violence and FGM.

Thursday 24th November at 10am

Delivered by the Fire Service, this session looks at identifying causes of fires, recognising those who are at increased risk of fire, the actions to take in the event of a fire and also how to make a referral for a home visit from the fire service

Find out below what is happening in Darlington to raise awareness of Safeguarding Week November 2023 and the key themes...

Booking Programme

Monday 20th November	2pm—3pm	Delivered by the Barnardo's, this session will look at how to use the child exploitation matrix and also the NRM process.
Tuesday 21st November	9:30am— 12pm	Adult Safeguarding—Reporting a Concern. Level 1 training session for adult safeguarding delivered as part of the Darlington Safeguarding Partnership training offer.
Wednesday 22nd November	10am — 12pm	Delivered by the HALO Project, this session looks at honour-based violence, forced marriage, domestic and sexual violence and FGM.
	10am — 11:30am	Delivered by the Amy Waterfield, this session is on Self-Neglect: The Individual's Perspective. A session which explores research findings from a study carried out as part of an Expert in Practice programme with Darlington Borough Council and Newcastle University, relating to perspectives of individuals identified as self-neglecting.
	1:30pm — 2:30pm	Delivered by Professor Nick Neave, this session will look at hoarding, raising awareness of this issue and discussing the work of the North East Hoarding Partnership and his research group.
Thursday 23rd November	10am — 11am	Delivered by the Fire Service, this session looks at identifying causes of fires, recognising those who are at increased risk of fire, the actions to take in the event of a fire and also how to make a referral for a home visit from the fire service
Friday 24th November	10am — 11:30am	Delivered by Rachel Watt from Adult Social Care, this session will discuss adult safeguarding under the Care Act 2014 discussing the roles and responsibilities of the Local Authority.

Safeguarding Week 2023

November 20th to 24th

Find out below what is happening in Darlington to raise awareness of Safeguarding Week November 2023 and the key themes...

ann craft trust

acting against abuse

Podcasts and resources around Domestic Abusive and Coercive Control , Resources for Safeguarding Week, Posters and factsheets, Blogs and short videos on a range of topics

Visit the ann craft trust website here

Taking the Lead on Safeguarding in your Organisation

Making Recruitment Safer webinar, hosted by Durham Safeguarding Children and Adult Partnerships and facilitated by the Disclosure and Barring Service. The session is on Tuesday 21st November. Further information and booking details are on:

Safeguarding Week 2023 - Making Recruitment Safer Tickets, Tue 21 Nov 2023 at 14:15 | Eventbrite

Diabetes and the links to Safeguarding Adults Reviews

Monday 20th November 2023, 10.00-11.00am

A session delivered by North East SAR Champions covering diabetes and how this condition is managed how it can manifest if not managed correctly.

Book your place here

How to book onto our Safeguarding Week sessions

Visit the DSP website and click the link for your chosen session

OR

Email the DSP Training inbox to request a place on your chosen session from this programme

DSP.training@darlington.gov.uk

Sessions open for bookings now!