

Reaching Out To Families

All together now – a place to feel connected, to be supported and to not feel alone.

This is a meeting place supporting families to come together from across Yorkshire and Humber and the North East - an opportunity to start a conversation, to share ideas and thoughts.

This meeting is for any family carer who has a family member who has a learning disability or is autistic.

The meeting will happen online using Zoom

It will take place on Thursday 29th
July 2021

10:30am until 12pm
